M/Y BIJOU is a Ferretti 731 built in 2005 (model 2006), equipped with twin 1,550 hp MAN engines delivering a powerful and efficient cruising experience. This elegant motor yacht offers generous accommodation with four double cabins, including a full-beam master suite, providing comfort and privacy for up to eight guests. Additionally, two crew cabins ensure excellent onboard service. Combining timeless Italian design with exceptional build quality, M/Y BIJOU is a superb example of Ferretti's renowned craftsmanship. Whether for private cruising or charter potential, she represents a compelling opportunity in her class.

LAYOUT:

M/Y BIJOU features a classic four-cabin layout designed for both comfort and privacy. The full-beam master suite is positioned amidships, offering generous volume, ample storage and a refined en-suite bathroom. Forward, a spacious VIP cabin provides excellent natural light, while two additional guest cabins complete the accommodation, allowing up to eight guests to stay comfortably. The main deck saloon is bright and welcoming, seamlessly connecting lounge and dining areas with direct access to the cockpit for indoor-outdoor living. A well-equipped galley supports extended cruising, and two separate crew cabins ensure discreet and professional onboard service.

BROKER COMMENTS:

What continues to make the Ferretti 731 so appealing is the sense of space and comfort it offers throughout. BIJOU is a well-kept example of this successful model, presenting a straightforward opportunity for buyers seeking a proven yacht with broad cruising appeal.
